-It is beautiful sleighing, but oh, how windy and cold. On Monday, the 29th day of November, the wind blew a perfect gale nearly all day, blowing down fonces and trees to a great extent; and on Tuesday morning the mercury had got down to 15° below zero, where it remained the most part of the day, and at 7 o'clock it had got down even lower than that. You need not go to Minnesota for wind and cold weath-

Townshond. ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM.

-A bold and daring attempt to burn the new blacksmith shop lately built by the Messrs. Willard, near their steam mill, for Mr. H. E. Benson, was made on Sunday night last. The present occupant, Mr. Benson, is a peaceable, quiet citizen and no betier workman can be found, and the people of Townshend feel highly pleased to have so good a workman come in among them. This they are proving by the way they are patronizing him, but on the night referred to some miserable, dastardly scamp went to the shop just after it commenced snowing, judging from the tracks to and around the shop, went underneath the shop and there piled up boards and other rubbish to the floor, then tucking paper and shavings underneath set fire to them ; but like all such states prison deserving scamps we presume they did not wait to see their fire blaze, and it went out, but their tracks to and from the shop did not go out, so that it is known what road they traveled, and the public can readily see what road they will travel if they do not mend their ways.

-The West Wardsboro woods in which panther was recently killed are the same in which two bears were killed in the fall f 1840, in a hunt participated in by Dr. J. G. Holland, then a young man stopping at West Wardsboro, an event which he comnemorated in a poem in the Vermont Phæ-

-The first of the course of lectures will be delivered at the Congregational church in Wednesday evening, Dec. 8, by the Rev. P. B. Fisk of Springfield, Vt. Subject "Yankeeisms," Senator Patterson of New Hampshire is expected to give a lecture early in the course.

-The old meeting house which has stood for upwards of eighty years a living monument of the persistent energy and persoverance of the early settlers of this lown, was to have been sold at auction on the 20th inst., but owing to there not being but few present the sale was continued until Dec. 4. It seems from a look at the records that as early as 1801 there was a town meeting warned at this house, and in 1802 a meeting was called to see if the town would paint the meeting house, and sell the pew ground. Of this meeting I can find no record. In 1806 a meeting was called to see if the town would "vote to raise money to finish the meeting house; 2d, to see if they would sell pew ground to finish the same," April 14th, 1806, "voted to pass over an article to raise money, and voted unanimously to sell the pew ground at vendue for the purpose of figishing the meeting bouse, and that the construction of the house shall be as follows, viz: One seat on the left and one on the right of the broad alley, and the remaining part of the floor to be converted into pews in the most convenient manner, and one tier of pews in the gallery on each wall, and the remainder to be converted into seats in the most convenient manner." Chose a committee consisting of "Jonathan Hall, Arms Brown Ambus Stone; and they were instructed to report their progress on the first Tuesday of Sept., 1806." On Sept. 2d, 1806, the coumittee reported that they proceeded to sell at public vendue the pew ground in said house, and that they have sold ALL the pew ground in said house. Some feeling that it would be an act not favorable for the harmony and good feeling of society have petitioned the selectmen to call a town meeting, which they have done, to take effect or Saturday, Dec. 11, at 1 o'clock, p. in., to reseind the vote passed Oct. 4th, whereby they voted to sell the house.

Bown meeting is called next Tuesday, Dec. 7, at 10 o'clock a. m., to see what action the town will take to aid in the construction of the Green Mountain Railroad. -The examination and rhetorical exercises at the close of the high schools were very entertaining and satisfactory to the friends of the school. The scholars appeared well, and in their lessons showed that they had been thoroughly drilled by their teacher, Mr. Rice, and understood what they had passed over. There was a fine paper edited by Miss Flora Ballon and Mise Anna Goodnow, which was well read and full of interest. Recitations from Miss Hattie Barnard and Miss Mary Mather were quite good. Declamation from Henry Morris was eloquent, and the valedictory, by Park Swift, written for the occasion by Rev. H. F. Ballou, was very excellent.

The winter term of the village school will commence next Monday, under the nstruction of Miss Rice and Miss Hescock, the same ladies who taught last summer.

-A praise meeting was observed at the Baptist charch on the eve of Nov. 21st. Quite a large and appreciative audience was present, including several from Brat-tieboro who took an active past. A union was present, including several from Brattleboro who took an active past. A union praise meeting was conducted in the same church on Thankagiving evening by the church on Thankagiving evening by the Rev. Mesars. Bradford, Burnham and Watson, each making a few remarks upon appropriate themes selected for the occasion A good number were in attendance and a general feeling of satisfaction prevailed.

-The Methodist church, which is nearly completed, came very near being consumed by fire last Friday. There were workmen in different parts of the building, making preparations for the coming dedieation day, when it was discovered as they were about to leave the church that the partition through which the stove pipe passes was on fire, having caught from the pipe. The flames were soon extinguished, doing but little damage. Had it taken fire a few minutes later it doubtless would have been destroyed. This is the second time this building has been on fire since it was com-menced. The dedication of this church will take place Wednesday, Dec. 8th, at 2 o'clock p. m. There will also be a service in the evening. Bishop Wiley of Boston and Rev. V. A. Cooper of Worcester are expected to preach. Refreshments at the

LITTELL'S LIVING AGE FOR 1876,-In no other way can so much of the best work of the best minds of the time be obtained so eheaply or conveniently, as through this every encouragement in the way of chro cheaply or conveniently, as through this standard eclectic weekly.

In 1876 it enters upon its thirty-third year, having met with continued and increasing success and being now, since its absorption of "Every Staturday," practically without a rival in its heid. With its weekly issue, and its three and a quarter thousand large pages of reading matter a year, it is enabled to present with a freshness and satisfactory completeness, attempted by no other publication, the ablest essays and reviews, the choicest serial and short stories, the most interesting sketches of travel and discovery, the best poetry, and the most valuable blographical, historical, scientific and political information from the entire body of foreign periodical ilterature. It would be difficult, therefore, to over-estimate its importance to American readers as the only thorough compilation of an indispensable, because it embraces the productions of the foremost living writers in science, fiction, history, blography, theology, philosophy, politics, criticism and art.

Such distinguished authors as Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Prof. Mar. Muller, Beof.

Such distinguished authors as Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Huxley, Dr. W. B. Carpenter, Prof. Tyndall, R. A. Proctor, The Duke of Argyll, Edward A. Freeman, Frances Power Cobbe, Jas. Anthony Froude, Mrs. Muloch, Mrs. Oliphant, Miss Thackeray, Jean Ingelow, Geo. McDonald, Thomas Hardy, Wm. Black, Anthony Trollope, R. D. Blackmore, Mrs. Parr, Julia Kavanagh, Mrs. Macquod, Matthew Arnold, Henry Kingsley, Thomas Carlyle, F. W. Newman, W. W. Story, Robert Buchanan, Tennyson, Browning, etc. etc., are represented in its pages; and during the coming year, besides the best fiction by the leading foreign novelists, it will give the usual amount, unapproached by any other periodical, of the most important literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the ablest living contributors to current literature.

The Living Age has always stood "at the

of the ablest living contributors to current literature.

The Living Age has always stood "at the head of its class," not only as the best, but all things considered, the cheapest of the eclectics; and in the multiplicity of quartilles, monthlies and weeklies, it has become almost a necessity to every person or family of intelligence and taste; for it, alone, furnishes such a compendium of whatever is of immediate interest or permanent value in the literary world as to render it an invaluable economizer of time, labor and money.

render it an invaluable economizer of time, labor and money.

The subscription price ($8 a year,) is cheap for the amount of reading fornished; or for those desiring the cream of both home and foreign literature, the publishers make a still cheaper offer, viz.; to send (postage prepaid on both periodicals) The Living Age and elither one of the American $4 monthlies, or weeklies, a year for $10,50. With The Living Age and one or other of our leading American monthlies, a subscriber will, at remarkably small cost, be in possession of the best which the current literature of the world affords.

The volume begins Jan. 1st, and to new subscribers, remitting now, the publishers (Littell & Gay, Boston.) offer to send the intervening numbers gratis.

The edition for 1876 of the sterling medical sunual known as Hostetter's Almanac, is now ready, and may be obtained, free of cost, of druggists and genersl country dealers in all parts of the United States and British America, and indeed in every civilized portion of the western hemisphere. It combines with the soundest practical advice for the preservation and restoration of health, a large amount of interesting and amusing light reading, and the calendar, astro-nomical calculations, chronological items, acc. are prepared with great care, and will be found entirely accurate. The issue of Hostetter's Almanae for 1878 will probably be the largest edition of a medical work ever published in any country. The proprietors, Mosree Hostetter & Smith, Pitthough, Pa, ou re-ceipt of a two-cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neigh-borhood.

CONFESSIONS OF A VICTIM.

-The officers of the Vermont Dairymen's Association have decided to hold a winter session of the Association, January 19, 20, and 21, 1876, at Rutland. Some of the best speakers in Vermont are engaged for the meeting, and delegations from similar associations abroad will be present.

-A three year old son of Heury Ballard, Esq., of Burlington, while playing with a screw driver the other day, fell on to it and drove the blade into his eyelid and up over he cyclirow into the socket of the eye, inflicting a very serious wound. The sight of the eye is not endangered but it was a very narrow escape.

-The Central Vermont has just promulgated a stringent order in regard to passes, or rather, free riding over its roads. Hereafter no employe of the road can ride over t without a pass. This order applies to onductors, engineers and station agents as well as to minor employes.
